

GOOD GOVERNANCE WORLDWIDE (GGW) JOURNAL

GUIDELINE FOR ABSTRACT

Abstract must not exceed 250 words and be single-spaced. This should address the central gist of the paper, including the subject/problem and the rationale; method of execution of the study; finding(s) (if applicable) and recommendation(s). The character of the abstract, like the full paper, should be in Time New Roman. Authors should be reminded that the full paper must not exceed 16-18 pages, 1.5 spaced (maximum 6,750 words).

The entire piece should be in one single paragraph and not be in italics. Keywords should be clearly outlined under the abstract, be arranged in alphabetical order and must not exceed five words/terms.
